

Prevention at Sea and Maritime Trainer two leading companies in the maritime industry, proudly announce their collaboration, which is aimed at bringing significant value to the industry, ensuring compliance, and promoting safety at sea. This collaboration reflects both companies' vision and dedication to quality and innovation, using their combined experience to provide superior solutions that satisfy the changing demands of the maritime industry.

Prevention at Sea known for its cutting-edge maritime safety and compliance solutions, has a strong track record and specialization in providing comprehensive services that prioritize the human element and safeguard the industry's smooth operations. With a focus on digitalization, human-centered auditing, SMS compliance and the development of innovative tools such as electronic logbooks and Virtual Reality Experiential Maritime Practicing, Prevention at Sea is at the forefront of ensuring that the shipping industry adheres to the highest industry standards and best practices of safety and efficiency.

Maritime Trainer with its extensive experience and ability to enable organizations to re-think learning with solutions for delivering an engaging experience that helps tap into the full potential of their most critical resource, i.e. their People. High-quality interactive CBTs, 3D incident videos, and VR-based serious games together with a comprehensive online and offline platform enable clients to manage all their training activities effectively.

For more information, contact us at

sales@preventionatsea.com